Kickers finish winless

By Ron Cline

The varsity kickers lost their last game of the season Saturday to University of Massachusetts, 40. The defeat was the first for the kickers since 1966.

The kickers were determined not to let the encounter go by without a fight. Valiant play by Randy Maslowitz, Jr. and Jeff Reynolds '69, who were each twice injured during the game, displayed this fact. They never took the field.

The defense tightened up and although the offensive pressure was left the game.

The defense tightened up and al-allowed no more goals until a so-

But aggressive defense could not offset a haphazard style, and the Tech booters remained scoreless.

This was the last game for the seven senior booters. Leaving the engineer squad will be Bob Akullian, Bob Cole, Carl Everett, Jeff Reynolds, Tom Tum, Carl Weissman, and Jeff Weissman. Everett, Weissman, and Reynolds provided the backbone of the Tech defense and will be sorely missed.

Make a better world with Stone & Webster

At Stone & Webster, you'll be part of one of the largest consulting, engineering and construction companies in the world. We've pioneered in nuclear and thermal power, and have led the talents in the petroleum, petrochemical and chemical industries. These plants and those we build tomorrow will make State & Webster

sweep of experience, your assignments will still be tailored to your engineering specialty. In addition, our generous Tuition Assistance Plan lets you make the most of the unlimited educational opportunities in the Boston area (once you complete your training, you'll probably be assigned to our Boston office). Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation, 225 Franklin Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02107. An Equal Opportu-unity Employer.

See your Placement Office for an appointment with representatives of Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation. They'll be on campus

November

\[ \text{IF you're more interested in construction engineering, we have a comprehensive training program for you too.} \]