THE URBAN CALENDAR

For the week beginning Friday, November 15 to Thursday, November 21.

MIT:

Urban Systems Laboratory and the Center for Advanced Engineering Studies will conduct threeinars from the fall series:

Mr. James Sullivan, Cambridge City Manager, will speak on "The Future of the City," Monday, November 18, at 3:00 pm in Room 9-150.

Professor David Kolb, Management, will speak on "The Dynamics of Helping Organizations," Wednesday, November 20, at 4:00 pm in Room 9-150.

Professor Fred Moavenzadeh, Civil Engineering, will speak on "Urban Applications of ICS," Thursday, November 21, at 4:00 pm in Room 9-550.

Harvard University:

Harvard–MIT Joint Center for Urban Studies will sponsor a lecture by Frances Fox Piven, Columbia School of Social Work, Tuesday, November 19, at 8:00 pm at 2 Divinity Avenue, Room 18.

Rice University:

Henry M. Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League and drummer appointee on the Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, will speak on "The Racial Crisis: Community or Chaos." The lecture, part of the 1968 Helmey Lecture Series, will be held in Schwartz Auditorium, at 8:15 pm on Tuesday, November 20.

Sponsored by the Urban Systems Laboratory