All this stuff is for real!

Companys all over Montana get water in the tank. It's not a monthly nor a quarterly fee; it's not a one-time fee, but a once-a-year charge. This is a per month fee that each company must pay to the city for the water they use.

In some cases, the companies are getting a lower rate than others. This is because the city has made changes to its water usage fees.

We'd like to make you a star.

The new 1969 Schaefer Talent Hunt is hunting for you! Last year, the Schaefer Talent Hunt selected ten talented new groups and sold their music. And it's a chance to be heard on radio all over the East — singing the popular Schaefer Beer Jingle. With as much public exposure as you'd have at a hit recording, and a chance to be heard on radio.

And it paid off. With a second contract. On air, of course. And — for all the winning groups — a trip to the upcoming Schaefer Beer convention.

Now the new 1969 Schaefer Talent Hunt is hunting for another ten new groups and bands to record their Schaefer Jingles. And receive the same kind of public exposure.

One of them could be you! Who can apply? Any vocal or instrumental soloist or group. Anybody who sings or plays any kind of music — whether it's Rock, Pop, Folk, Soul, Jazz, or Country and Western.

You must be at least 21 and must submit a demonstration record on tape (or reel of tape). You must also be an original composer. You must provide all the information requested on the application, although you need not use the form itself.

Application materials are not returnable and must be received no later than February 10, 1969; so don't delay!

This is a copy of a copy of an invitation to interview a company you may not know well enough.

Making copies is any part of the story. You can get the other part straight from the source. Talk to your representatives in education and ask them about the opportunities in research and development, both in academic institutions and in industry. It is an exciting time to be in the field of science and engineering. The opportunities are endless, and the future looks bright. So don't delay! You may already be too late.
