Burton gets top seed in playoffs on strength of unbeaten season

By George Novosadski

Burton House established itself as the team to beat when it emerged as the only unbeaten team in either of the A leagues. Burton edged challenger BTP 48-37 as Don Schull '69 proved in 20 points and Jeff Cove '70 scored 18 for the losers. Burton also beat ICA to finish 5-0. LCA topped Kappa Sigma 93-33 in the only other A1 league match.

SAE (4-1) scored a pair of upsets to finish in a tie with 150 total points. For first in league A2, SAE first whipped SPE 132-38 as Ken Wendheus '72 had all scorers with 19 points and Bob Dresser '71 contributed 14. Then SAE barely edged PGG (2-2) 33-32. The Fijis had a five point lead, 32-27, to be last a half and a half minutes to go, but SAE switched to a man-to-man defense and tallied the final six points on three steals. Dresser had 12 points for the winners, while Randy Hekman '69 scored ten points in a losing cause.

Four of the 16 spots in the upcoming playoffs will be filled by the winners of each of the four B leagues. Baker and Ashdown were the winners of each of the four B upcomings will be filled by the winners of each of the four B leagues. Baker and Ashdown were

Jumbos dunk swimmers as Sanders wins twice

By Ray Kwosinski

The frosh swimming team was toppled by Tufts last Tuesday 53-42. Pete Sanders started in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 2:03.4. Sanders put in his third strong showing of the meet in the 200 individual medley. He also has the winning mark while John Cecilfan took second and third respectively in the 200-yard freestyle.

Sanders put in his third strong showing of the meet in the 200-yard breast stroke, leading his fellow squammers with a 2:34.2. Jim Viviano scored the engine's only point in the 200-yard backstroke by taking third.

In the 100 individual medley Kim Bierwert's 1:57.7 proved to be the winning mark while John Cecilfan took second and third respectively in the 100-yard freestyle.

The Tech swimmers couldn't overcome the winning time of 22.6 in the 50-yard freestyle, but Sanders swapped second place honors with a 24.2 while Dan Nadler followed closely in third with a 24.5. Jim Hadley and John Cecilfan took second and third respectively in the 100-yard freestyle.
