Icemen downed by Babson

By Pete Peckarsky

The varsity skiers dropped a hard-fought game, 7-5, to the Babson icemen (who were delayed a half hour by the recent snowstorm) on Saturday afternoon. Babson from leading scores on and near the Tech squad, the team's problem was to be psychological obstacles after the trophy-copping performance in the week-end tournament.

It was called a Barber score on a two-man advantage to knot the score at 1 point out of first. Cale fell one point out of first. Cale fell hard early in the race but finished third, with Max Daamen '70 right behind in sixth and Hans Rasmussen '70 in eighth. The next day Schultz was 0.2 seconds off the top time in his first run but, after spinning on a turn in the second race, had to settle for a fifth. Chip Schroeder '70 had a fast first run but was disqualified for missing a gate.

The only Jumbo points came at the desert of Bruce Davies '71 (191), and even those three were tainted. At 2:05 of his match with the Engineers lead grew to a point in non-intercollegiate meets at its own. The following weekend the team travelled to Orono, Maine, for the Maine Carnival. On the first day at 7 pm in the T-club lounge (at the lobby of Building 10; otherwise the students can obtain free tickets in the student Pool Slalom, sponsored by the alumni). Price of '70 in eighth. The next day Schultz was 0.2 seconds off the top time in his first run but, after spinning on a turn in the second race, had to settle for a fifth. Chip Schroeder '70 had a fast first run but was disqualified for missing a gate.

There will be a meeting today at 5:30 pm in the Tech basement, 2nd floor to discuss the idea of a skiing group. For those interested in playing freerun basketball.

The Third Annual MIT Invitational Pool Slalom, sponsored by the White Water Club, will be held Saturday at 7 pm at the Alumni Pool. Students can obtain free tickets in the lobby of Building 11 for the admission fee is fifty cents at the door.