MIT was awarded the 1969 Continental Championship by the North American Tiddlywinks Association at its annual tournament held here over the weekend.

The engineers fanned two teams against teams from Cornell, the University of Ottawa, Regis College, Harpur College, and Case Western Reserve.

The weekend victory in the annual Tiddlywinks tournament. The engineers won the 1981 championship, held at Cornell last November, over teams from Toronto and Cornell. Intercollegiate Tiddlywinks was begun by a Harvard team which was disbanded. Tournament play is now organized by the North American Tiddlywinks Association. The only elected officer of the NATA is the Captain of the MIT team, Mitch Wand '69, who holds the office of NATA Secretary.
