MITAA elects new officers; plans given for coming year

Wallace Price '70 and Paul Sullivan '71 were elected to the positions of president and vice president, respectively, at the Athletic Association's annual meeting on February 16. Both were unopposed and elected on a white-hat-lot, but the ideas they expressed in lieu of campaign speeches excited some goal for this coming year.

Retiring President Jim Yanakos opened the meeting with an address in which he praised the association's "tunneling" of a 1965 record. He thanked all those for their efforts, priorities, fulfillment of facilities, and planning of facilities for a future MIT. Specifically, the organization, in conjunction with the Dean's Office, had agreed to fund the preliminary study, but so far, there has been no reaction from the Planning Office. As a result, the Association has been unable to begin the planning stage for the gym, which is at least ten years away, anyway.
