The Undergraduate Constitution for a Unified University
(The HAC Proposal)

Section I: The name of this organization shall be the Undergraduate Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. All activities and organizations at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology shall be conducted in such a manner that the Undergraduate organization shall be empowered to act on behalf of the undergraduate student body.

Section II: The General Assembly may elect a representative to make recommendations in any area.

The General Assembly may discuss, make recommendations, and act on any matter in any area in which a written proposal is submitted by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology is involved.

The General Assembly shall act with power in cases where an activity is sponsored by the Undergraduate Association of undergraduates outside a living group which uses facilities outside the jurisdiction of the General Assembly. A majority vote of the General Assembly is required to declare or be covered by this paragraph, a majority vote of the General Assembly is required to be covered by this paragraph.

The names of the Undergraduate Student Activities and the General Committees of this Association shall be under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly.

Section III: All acts and decisions of the General Assembly are by a majority vote of the General Assembly. All acts and decisions of this Association except that on petition submitted in writing by 10% of the Undergraduate Association within fifteen school days of the occurrence of such acts and decisions by the General Assembly, the question shall be referred to the Association. This provision shall not be altered or amended by the provisions of Art. II, Sec. 4.

Section IV: A question referred to the Undergraduate Association by the members of the General Assembly shall be set at either a special meeting of the General Assembly or at a regular meeting whenever it is so requested by the petition. In either case, the amendment of an act or decision of the General Assembly shall require a majority of those voting, providing that the total number of ballots exceeds thirty percent (30%) of the membership of the Undergraduate Association.

Section V: Members of the General Assembly may form committees or subgroups within the living group, to act on matters which are to be considered under the following methods established by the individual living group. Each group shall be as provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly and each subgroup shall be as provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section VI: The General Assembly shall meet no later than the sixtieth day after the end of the academic year. The agenda of this meeting shall be as provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section VII: On petition of one-fourth (1/4) of the members of the Undergraduate Association, or ten (10%) of the members of the Undergraduate Association represented in writing to the General Assembly, the General Assembly shall meet as provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section VIII: No undergraduate student shall be eligible to hold any office under this constitution. The President of the Undergraduate Association shall be elected by the members of the General Assembly present at the General Assembly meeting.

Section IX: The Undergraduate Assembly shall have three executive committees: the Executive Committee, the Executive Committee of the Undergraduate Association (UAP), a Vice-President of the Undergraduate Association, and the Executive Committee of the Undergraduate Association (UAP).

Section X: The Undergraduate Assembly shall be elected by the members of the General Assembly present at the General Assembly meeting. Each member of the General Assembly shall cast one vote for each member of the Undergraduate Assembly. The election shall be as provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section XI: The UAP shall act for the General Assembly when that person is absent. In the absence of the members present at the UAP, the UAP shall succeed to the post until the next Undergraduate Assembly.

Section XII: The Secretary General shall serve as Secretary of the General Assembly, and in the case of the Secretary General attending a meeting of the General Assembly at another location, the Secretary General shall maintain contact with the General Assembly.

Section XIII: The UAP shall be elected by a majority vote of the General Assembly present at the General Assembly meeting. The UAP shall act in the manner provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section XIV: The General Assembly shall act under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, the General Assembly, and the Nomination Committee.

Section XV: The General Assembly shall act upon the General Assembly, the General Assembly, and the Nomination Committee.

Section XVI: Amendments to this Constitution may be made by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the General Assembly present at any meeting of the General Assembly at which amendments are voted. Any amendment shall be approved by a majority vote of the members of the General Assembly present at any meeting of the General Assembly at which amendments are voted.

Section XVII: The UAP shall act for the General Assembly when that person is absent. The UAP shall act in the manner provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section XVIII: Any amendment to this Constitution shall be accepted by a majority vote of the General Assembly present at any meeting of the General Assembly at which amendments are voted.

Section XIX: The UAP shall act for the General Assembly when that person is absent. The UAP shall act in the manner provided in the By-Laws of the General Assembly.

Section XX: Any amendment to this Constitution shall be accepted by a majority vote of the General Assembly present at any meeting of the General Assembly at which amendments are voted.