* The Peter J. Shumansky Research Fellowship will provide JMT opportunities with support for summer research at the school of laboratory of their choice. Written proposals outlining the applicant's plans for a summer research project should be submitted to Ms. Leonard Gallagher, Associate Director of Student Aid, Room 3-119. The deadline for application has been extended to Friday, April 11. See Mr. Gallagher for more information.
* Applications are now being accepted for positions to student assistants in undergraduate Institute and fellowships. Fellow's responsibilities are of an informal nature — basically, to provide tutoring and counseling assistance to undergraduates. For information contact Student Assistant Coordinator at Room 6-106. Interested graduate students should write to Dean Kenneth D. Rudolph, 7-133, giving (i) qualifications and background, (ii) the names of two MIT faculty members who can serve as references, (iii) approval of thesis advisor or registration officer to undertake the tutorial responsibility. For further information contact Miss Selinger, 7-133, x6776.

various ideas about pricing, advertising, and gearing to specific audiences were discussed, until White asked the Executive Board to adjourn to the VooDoo room and vote on whether or no to disband themselves.

After caucuses, sub-caucuses, and an open meeting, the Board voted 4-3 to disband. George and Smith have asked that the name of the magazine be changed so that they have associated it with their form and organizations. Smith refused to work for any future issues.

The meeting then settled into an organizational discussion. Plans were mentioned to possibly publish one short issue following this, with a major edition to coincide with former Vice President Robert Humphrey’s upcoming visit to the Inns-
