How They Did

Tennis
MIT 5-Georgetown 0
Univ. of North Carolina 9-0 MIT
MIT 10-New England Tennis Club 8
MT 7-Davidson 2
MT 9-Northeastern State 4

Lacrosse
MT 3-Adegk 2
Hofstra 15-8
Mt. Holyoke 13-8
MT 10-Loyola 9

Baseball
Loyola 9-MIT 0
Catholic 4-MIT 1
Fordham 3-MIT 2
MT 4-New York Maritime 2

Netmen 5-1 after trip south

By Ray Kwon

The tennis team departed from the front door of the Athletic Center, steered by the sun beams of the special clock to the bus door. The coach, Mr. McKee, pulled away with a small group of players. Then, we saw the bus in the parking lot and the bus drove away. We were on our way to the trip. The team was excited, and everyone was ready for the new adventure.

On Wednesday, the Tech stickmen suffered a costly 1-3 loss to the hands of the Long Island Islanders. It was a tough game, but the Techies put in their best effort.

On Saturday, March 29, the engineers exploded for four runs in the first three innings against Fordham.

The tennis team departed from the front door of the Athletic Center, steered by the sun beams of the special clock to the bus door. The coach, Mr. McKee, pulled away with a small group of players. Then, we saw the bus in the parking lot and the bus drove away. We were on our way to the trip. The team was excited, and everyone was ready for the new adventure.

On Wednesday, the Tech stickmen suffered a costly 1-3 loss to the hands of the Long Island Islanders. It was a tough game, but the Techies put in their best effort.

On Saturday, March 29, the engineers exploded for four runs in the first three innings against Fordham.