Freshmen indignities

To the editor:

Right through F. Rush Works and being a member of a freshman "platoon" has meant a host of indignities being imposed upon freshmen in order to ensure the effective members of a big group.

One of the most obvious denials of rights is that each term, for a term on any house policy, including

- the ability to cast a vote in this year's elections (the candidates for IFC and SA are not open to freshmen."

Another denials of rights is the amount of money that is not saved by that administration, with large amounts of all the cleaning and maintenance work being done by hand instead of being done by the Coop. This is a waste of manpower, and limits its potential for more competitive service.

This year's freshmen are entering an institution which is desperate for students such as renewal soon, and we assume that Servend has not been granted the until October of 1969 to receive itself to be an agency of the federal government? For this money immediately, as soon

This one is merely an attempt to keep things under control. As a bets in October. 1968. While fig-
