Coop reform

Today all members of the Coop will receive a ballot in the mail asking them to vote on proposed by-law revisions. We urge all MIT students to vote "Yes" on the by-law reforms, and return their ballots immediately.

Each vote is needed because no changes can be made regardless of the results unless a minimum of 25% of the Coop membership votes. A majority is obtained. This figure includes Harvard-Radcliffe-MIT students, alumni, officers, and Coop employees.

Effectively, this means that Coop members have the Board of Directors over a barrel. Nevertheless, rather than exploit the situation at this time, the Board of Directors gave the members an opportunity to vote on the benefits these reforms.

Two things are disturbing about the proposed by-law reforms. First they include no provision for exemption of that minority fundamental part of the Coop policy as the means of dispensing profits to the members. The ever-shrinking patronage rebate makes us suspect that it will dwindle to practically nothing, or even worse, be maintained at a high and respectable level by high

The social fabric at home won't tolerate that. What is required is a continued program to make more responsible for death when the new regime takes over. Whatever radicals and the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of United States forces from the tax collectors. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of the Castroites and the Bolheviks. The people's war is a war of