Radicals split over tactics

that, especially not after the abortion of many not-so-narcissists from MIT and the incation of SACC. Indeed, at the Labs a resolve to stand fast when the cops came broke down.

Tactical disputes resolved among many questions, some of expediency and others of morality. Many times an incredible narrative was displayed in these discussions. Especially confusing was the obsession with the "working class" which many NAC people seem to believe it is vital to win over and that it is among this class that the revolution must be made. This belief is hard to explain in light of the way the American economy is set up.
