question, they not only know what the question is going to be, they choose an answer that goes beyond what you had started to ask.”

The actors were very disconcerted with the small audiences to which they have been playing. Sparer said, “I’m frankly appalled by what the question is going to be. I always rather blush because I didn’t set out to do this. Rather I adopted what I consider to be the core of Oppenheimer’s personality and let them do it for me.”

Mr. Phalen commented that one major difference between playing this play and others that he has done is that the actors are on stage all the time, resulting in a need for greater concentration and more sustained action. STUDENT GLOBE ROAMERS
Box 6757 Hollywood, Florida 33021

TWA put a price on your head that even your parents might agree to pay.

We’re out to get you home for the holidays. Fast. Which is something that your parents will probably enjoy too. Something else they’ll enjoy is our fares for students. (Students, that is. Who are between the ages of 12 and 21.) On a standby basis, you’ll get 40% off regular coach fares. Which doesn’t mean you’ll be flying second class or anything like that.

You still get all the great food and TWA features like movies and stereo music.* But it won’t cost you like it does everyone else.

And TWA flies to nearly all the major cities in the U.S., plus we have a special youth fare to Hawaii.

With all that going for you, there’s only one excuse for not going home for the holidays.

Getting your hair cut.

A report from Chancellor Glenn Dumke’s office recommends setting up strong controlling boards to "guard against misuse of the principle of freedom of the press." Dumke’s idea is that if the papers have strong "controls" they won’t have to counteract it. The bill would not only be more effective than placing.Opposite: Arthur Rosenberg, Optician.
