Student participation in MIT Clubs increases

Students home for the holidays are being invited to attend MIT Club luncheons and meetings in eighteen cities across the country as guests of the clubs. The purpose seems to be to bring together students and alumni in these cities so that alumni can learn at first hand how changed MIT is from their days. Alumni are also interested in knowing how students from their cities are getting along.

Christmas holiday meetings

In this issue of The Tech the Alumni Association is listing all club programs scheduled for the year end period. Each club mails an invitation to the undergraduates from their area describing its meeting and also dependent on The Tech to let all students know so as to reach students who will be visiting these cities.

Summer picnics

Alumni Clubs in these and other cities hold Summer Picnics to which they invite incoming freshmen and upperclassmen and alumni so as to introduce the incoming students to upperclassmen and alumni from the same area.

The Alumni Association assists Clubs planning such programs by providing envelopes addressed to students and to alumni and publicizing undergraduate-alumni meetings.

Summer employment

A few Clubs have Summer Employment for Students Committees. These Committees secure a list of local summer employment opportunities (described approximately by background in selected departments at the Institute) and mail these to students from their home city.

Apparently, there are many students who would like summer employment in strange parts of the country instead of at home. The Alumni Association funnels such requests to Clubs in the desired geographic area.

98 Alumni Clubs around the world

There are 73 Alumni Clubs in the United States; 13 in North, Central and South America; and 12 overseas in such cities as London, Paris, Haifa, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Taipei, Tokyo and Manila.

In the United States last year, 156 alumni club meetings brought together an estimated 11,200 alumni, wives and guests to hear faculty speakers and local speakers on subjects of continuing interest to MIT.
