Clarification from the Discipline Committee

(Ed.’s Note: This statement was released by the Discipline Committee on 23 December 1969, as a clarification of its procedures and standing as to its nature and structure.)

This statement is issued in response to the interest in having a detailed statement of the clarification of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.

This statement has a twofold purpose: (a) to restate the basic aims and procedures of the Committee and (b) in cooperation with the President’s Office to clear up misunderstandings expressed at the meeting of the Augmented Faculty Council on Wednesday, January 15, 1970, regarding the interest in having a detailed statement of the purposes of the Discipline Committee operating under the rules and regulations which the members of the M.I.T. community are expected to follow. Members of the Disciplinary Committee operate under the rules and procedures by which disciplinary cases are handled in recent cases such as that of M. Albert.