Motions call for Lab conversion; divestment, status quo also sought

When you consider a savings account running well into 5 figures as the alternative to life insurance, almost any kind of life insurance is a bargain. However, when you get down to close comparisons, some life insurance is a bigger bargain than others. We'll list the bargain of bargains in SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE for a careful examination will show you that SBLI is the lowest cost life insurance for all occupations, all sex, all age, and all health ratings.

For reasons under the SBLI 5-Year Term Plan, a man of 40 can buy $25,000 in Savings Bank Life Insurance for less than $100 a year. (at age 25, the cost is less than 75 a year.) This compares favorably to provide same protection at a time when families need it most. In addition, an SBLI 5-Year term policy is automatically renewable and convertible to any one of several other policies as you age up to age 65, with additional medical examination. This assures continuity of insurance protection, no matter what your occupation or health condition might develop.

Another reason why SBLI is a bargain is the fact that although Massachusetts Savings Bank Life Insurance is available only to people who live or work in Massachusetts, you can keep whatever amount you own at the same time that your premiums even if you should leave the state. In addition, you can find out for yourself about this kind of Savings Bank Life Insurance policy by visiting our bank, where an SBLI representative at the office of the bank will be pleased to answer your questions. Have one of these policies issued. Savings Bank Life Insurance is a SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE
