Announcements:

- Nominations for the Goodell Medal are now being accepted by the Dean of the Graduate School. Submit the name of a candidate to Dean Irwin W. Sizer, Room 3-134, before March 20, 1970. There will be an interview with the student or faculty member. Faculty nominations should be submitted through the Head of the Department. Nominations should be submitted to be considered for the Undergraduate Awards (for undergraduate students not students of Goodell Medal winners). The Goodell Medal is awarded in recognition of a conspicuous example of initiative and service by a graduate student who is either a Teaching Assistant or Instructor.

- The annual MIT Red Cross Blood Drive will be held March 11-20. This year’s goal is 21,413 pints (exactly 20% higher than last year’s goal). The Blood Drive is open to all students and faculty members, and anyone else interested should be there. The agenda and anyone else interested should be there.

- STUDY ABROAD! This requires immediate attention for freshmen and juniors. The Rotary Club is your home away from home for your graduate fellowship or a total undergraduate scholarship for study abroad. Applications are due no later than March 15, 1970. For information, see Dean Hazen, Room 1-207, x5243.

- The General Assembly meets every Tuesday at 8 pm in the Sala. The first meeting of the new assembly was held tonight at 8 sharp. The agenda included the election of representatives and any other issues of interest. The assembly is under the direction of three faculty members, and representatives of the student body will be elected. The agenda included consideration of a motion to make the MIT treasurer Joseph Snyder an appropriate representative of the assembly.

- The MIT Black Student Union and a group of South African exile students at MIT will be sponsoring a photographic exhibition on "The Sharpeville Massacre in South Africa" in the lobby of Building 10 on the 10th of March at 10 pm.

- A conference on the "Civil Rights Movement in Africa" will be held in the Kimmage Auditorium from April 15 to May 10. Invited speakers include representatives of the African National Congress and the universal Negro student movement. The conference will be sponsored by the M.I.T. Black Student Union and the African Union.

- On the 21st of March, 1970, the 10th anniversary of the Sharpeville Massacre, Dennis Burton, an M.I.T. student, and President of the South African Non-Racial Olympic Committee, the African Union, and the Black Student Union will present a program in South Africa. The program will be held in the Kimmage Auditorium on the 21st of March at 10 pm.

- On April 11, several student organizations from various colleges will be attending a symposium on the role of the United States in the struggle for a free, South Africa. The symposium will be held in the Kimmage Auditorium on the 11th of April at 10 pm.

- Free computer time is available to students for projects of their own design. The computer will be available from 8 PM to 10 PM, Monday through Thursday. The computer will be available for use by all students who are enrolled in an M.I.T. course requiring a computer for their work. The computer will be available for use by M.I.T. students who are enrolled in an M.I.T. course requiring a computer for their work.

- Volunteers are needed to help in a program finding jobs for MIT students. For information call David Kesten in the Educational Services Department, 486-3560.
