Most Life Insurance is a Bargain.

When you consider a savings account running well into 5 figures as the alternative to life insurance, almost any kind of life insurance is a bargain.

However, when you get down to close comparisons, some life insurance is a bargain than others. We need your help to cover some life insurance is a bargain. Welt into 5 figures as the alternative to life insurance, almost any kind of life insurance is a bargain.

SBLI 5 year term policy is automatically renewable and convertible to any one of several permanent policies up to age 65, without additional medical examination. This assures continuity of protection, no matter what health condition might develop.

Another reason why SBLI is a bargain is the fact that although Massachusetts SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT says that SBLI is America's lowest cost life insurance for all Ordinary Life, Endowment, and Renewable Term.

For example, under the SBLI 5 Year Renewable Term Plan, a man of 40 can buy $25,000 in Savings Bank Life Insurance for less than $100 a year* (at age 25, the cost is less than $75 a year*). This makes it possible to provide extra protection — at least cost — at a time when families need it most. In addition, an SBLI 5 year term policy is automatically renewable and convertible to any one of several permanent policies up to age 65, without additional medical examination. This assures continuity of protection, no matter what health condition might develop.

S.L.I. IS 4TH IN THE AMOUNT OF LIFE INSURANCE IN FORCE IN MASSACHUSETTS OF ALL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES LICENSED in the State.

Cagers look to future

By Roger King

Rebuilding was the key to this year’s varsity basketball season. Even though the record of 9-16 was only a little better than last year, it does not show the improvement the team made over the season. The starting five were hampered by the fact that one guard from Cleveland played last year. Captain Bruce Leathers, who was the team’s leading scorer, and being sophomores, the other three starters, 6-6 Ben Wilson, 6-2 Harold Breed, and 6-10 David Miller, lacked playing experience.

They had a very poor record after the first several games, but learned to work together and began to win more games as the season progressed. The team reached its technical peak against WPI, but from the spectator’s standpoint, the season’s highlights were the Bates and Harvard Games. The Harvard one was the most exciting as MIT was with Harvard all the way until it got into foul trouble in the last few minutes. But Bates the result was different as the Engineers came from 15 points behind to tie the game up and eventually win in overtime.

Coach John Barry though sees a much better season next year.

Gymnasts take 2nd in N.E.

The MIT gymnastics team brought home two less than second place in the 1970 New England Championships at Lowell Tech. This was quite an achievement since they were competing against the excellent teams of Dartmouth, Yale, and Coast Guard, which in past years did not enter the meet.

Tech riflemen top B.C. season’s mark at 19-3

Four times this season the MIT rifle team has met the Boston College rifle team, and four times MIT has won a decisive victory over them. Firing on Friday evening at the Mit range in the last New England league match of the year, MIT defeated BC 1317 to 1263.

Captain Dick Evans ’70, continuing his streak of hot shooting, led the team with a 275, equaling his career high. His score was composed of a 96 in the prone position, 96 in kneeling, and a superb 89 in standing. He was backed up by Karl Launson ’71 with a 267, composed of a 96 in prone, 91 kneeling, and an 84 standing. Eric Kramer ’71 had troubles in the prone position with a 54, an 89 in kneeling, and adding a 79 standing for a 262 total.

Frank Leathers ’72 took fourth place on the team as he turned out a fine 261, made up of a 96 prone, 91 kneeling, and 74 standing. The fifth man on the team was Dave Hunt ’70, who fired 93 prone, a 96 in kneeling, and a 69 in the standing position for a 252.

Though the team still has the New England Championships and the Greater Boston Tournament to compete in, this match completes the team’s regular season and makes their win-loss record 19-3, a credit to Coach Al Haden, who has been at MIT for two seasons now.
