Tech racquetmen lose 7-2 to Harvard team

Despite the balmy weather, the Tech racquetmen were unable to muster a win on the DuPont hard courts Wednesday afternoon. Harvard won 7 of 9 matches; in the other two, the Crimson’s shutout was saved by the oncoming darkness.

Outstanding Harvard sophomores Dave Fish defeated Joe Baron ‘70 (6-3, 6-3), Snodder Smith ‘71 made an excellent showing against Clark Kawakami in defeat (6-0, 7-5), and Skip Perkins succumbed to the devastating ground game of Bill Brock (6-1, 6-3). Powerful Steve Cross ‘71 and his slashing serve more consistent play of the Crimson’s shutout was saved by matches; in the other two, the able to muster a win on the PAGE8 FRIDAY, APRIL

Outstanding Harvard sopho-

Despite the balmy ‘weather,

The Norelco Rechargeable Tripleheader Shaver was made to do two things: And to give you up to twice as many shaves to shave you as close or closer than a

The Rechargeable Tripieheader has 18 shave your beard in every direction at once. They go in where your face curves in, and out where your face curves out.

And because the blades are rotary, they shave in every direction (If you don’t think that means anything, feel your face. How soft your beard grows in different directions on different parts of your face?) (If you don’t think that means anything, feel your face. How soft your beard grows in different directions on different parts of your face?)

The Norelco Rechargeable Tripleheader also has a pop-up trimmer, so you can see exactly what you’re trimming.

The Charge Indicator lights that up when it’s charging.

It has a Shave Counter to count your shaves. And it shows you nearly twice as many shaves per charge as any other rechargeable shaver.

So if you’re shaving with a blade, feel around your chin and neck and upper lip. If it feels like you could use a closer shave, you’re probably right.

Shave your whole face for a change.

The heads actually float, to follow the curves of your face.

They go in where your face curves in, and out where your face curves out.

And because the blades are rotary, they shave in every direction (If you don’t think that means anything, feel your face. How soft your beard grows in different directions on different parts of your face?) (If you don’t think that means anything, feel your face. How soft your beard grows in different directions on different parts of your face?)

The Norelco Rechargeable Tripleheader also has a pop-up trimmer, so you can see exactly what you’re trimming.

The Charge Indicator lights that up when it’s charging.

It has a Shave Counter to count your shaves. And it shows you nearly twice as many shaves per charge as any other rechargeable shaver.

So if you’re shaving with a blade, feel around your chin and neck and upper lip. If it feels like you could use a closer shave, you’re probably right.

Shave your whole face for a change.