NAC/TDA rallies negate revolution
By Steve Carhart

Well, our local playboy "revolutionaries" had their big Wednesday night rally to let the public know that they wanted to play games with the police. While the police came together with their thousand silent alarm against the administration position in Southeast Asia. The rally was a success because of the numbers it attracted. However, it was much the better.

The Tech would like to encourage everyone to set aside some time Wednesday to participate in three workshops. If the workshops are of a political nature, it is important to convince.

Of course, the instigators of Wednesday night's chaos

-NAC/TDA—aren't interested in ending the war within the present administration so we can begin upon starting a revolution. But they are also the revolutionaries of the future. They believe in an entirely new and different world.

Of course, it is an uneasy alliance of the violent and the non-violent and the strained feelings were evident throughout the day. After Wednesday evening it is obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.

With the peace rally scheduled throughout the day, after Wednesday evening it is

obvious there will never be another April 15.

The time has come for the anti-war

protesters to shift all of their efforts to protecting the peace rally from the police. To do this, we must

convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right. To do this, we must convince the students of the many

reasons why the peace movement is

right.