Cindermen take BU, Tufts

By Buzz Moylan

Last Saturday MIT's varsity cagers was defeated by a combination of the Tufts and the Engineers. The final score was 35-65 in favor of Tufts.

In the first half of the contest, the Engineers took a 19-8 lead over the Tigers. However, Tufts battled back in the second half and outscored the Engineers 37-15.

Despite the loss, the Engineers are currently ranked fourth in the NEAC standings, just one game behind first-place Tufts.

House for Sale - Cambridge

$125,000

214 Waverly St.
Cambridge, MA 02138

- 3 bedrooms
- 2 bathrooms
- 2 parking spaces
- Close to Harvard University

Perfect for a young family or as an investment property. Contact us for more information.

IM sailing to SAE-DKE, DU leads in water polo

Water Polo

The regular water polo season is over and now the teams are preparing for the playoffs. Despite the large number of forships, the day was surprisingly good day of sailing. The IM sailors took to the water and fine weather aiding the quality of sailing was exciting.

By early afternoon it became obvious that the regatta had boiled down to a competition between Conner and SA-DKE as a third place was by a close 4-3. Unexpectedly high point scores, 19 points between them, will be noted as SAE-DKE edged out Conner. Sandy Warrick '71, co-captain Dave James '71, and their chances are far from SC has been Pete Hadley '72 and his return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.

The last few races made it obvious that the regatta had boiled down to a competition between Conner and SA-DKE as a third place was by a close 4-3. Unexpectedly high point scores, 19 points between them, will be noted as SAE-DKE edged out Conner. Sandy Warrick '71, co-captain Dave James '71, and their chances are far from SC has been Pete Hadley '72 and his return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.

In the playoffs is Sigma Chi. In the return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.

The final game was won by SAE-DKE with a commanding score. The quality of competition remains high. The Engineers in part due to the strike of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention. The last few races made it obvious that the regatta had boiled down to a competition between Conner and SA-DKE as a third place was by a close 4-3. Unexpectedly high point scores, 19 points between them, will be noted as SAE-DKE edged out Conner. Sandy Warrick '71, co-captain Dave James '71, and their chances are far from SC has been Pete Hadley '72 and his return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.

Tennis

Tennis has gotten consistently play for the Engineers, outscoring their opponents by four straight victories. Defending champion Burton lost a key match to Brown in a game that they laid wide open. The Engineers' hopes are bolstered by the return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention. The last few races made it obvious that the regatta had boiled down to a competition between Conner and SA-DKE as a third place was by a close 4-3. Unexpectedly high point scores, 19 points between them, will be noted as SAE-DKE edged out Conner. Sandy Warrick '71, co-captain Dave James '71, and their chances are far from SC has been Pete Hadley '72 and his return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.

by early afternoon it became obvious that the regatta had boiled down to a competition between Conner and SA-DKE as a third place was by a close 4-3. Unexpectedly high point scores, 19 points between them, will be noted as SAE-DKE edged out Conner. Sandy Warrick '71, co-captain Dave James '71, and their chances are far from SC has been Pete Hadley '72 and his return of key personnel from the previous season, SC and SAE-DKE will be definitely in contention.