THE MIND OF MR. SAAMES

TERENCE STAMP

Listen for the sounds of love...

Where do you hear them?

In a plea for help from someone who needs it? In a marriage-on-the-rocks? At a Catholic Mass conducted in an Episcopal Church?

You'd be surprised. The sounds of love are everywhere — anyone can hear them. If they listen.

The Paulists listen. But, like everything in life, the things that mattermost are the hardest.

It isn't easy being a Paulist.

Like her recent, widely praised The Inner City Mother Goose, Miss Merriam's new satiric work combines powerful graphic effects with a verbal economy to produce the urgent social statement of a poet at ease with her surroundings. "The sky is as blue," she writes, "as policemen's helmets." $4.95

The Social Contract

Men are not created equal, maintains Robert Ardrey, author of AFRICAN GENESIS and THE TERRITORIAL IMPERATIVE. Ardrey maintains that since Rousseau published his "Contract" two centuries ago, men have mindlessly pursued a goal which must be considered a natural impossibility amongst sexually reproducing species. Ardrey presents scientific proof which he states should be common knowledge and explains, with authority, clarity, and enthusiasm, the step-by-step development of the human system. $10.00

Eve Merriam

THE NIXON POEMS

Illustrated by John Gerbino

Other Presidents of the United States have had odes penned to them in the White House, but none quite like these. To MY PREZ, Eve Merriam offers: "of whom/else can I say that/while he does/something good/there is a bad reason for it." A charter member of the loyal Black Student Union and the committee that would be "a gross injustice and a violation of the sense of the signers of this document," Miss Merriam offers powerful thought and challenge. $10.00
