The Tech hoopers won their fifth and sixth straight home games last week as they took Bates on Monday, 88-61 and Lowell Tech on Saturday, 85-77. Star forward Harold Brown 72 scored 29 points and pulled down 10 rebounds to spark the Lowell Tech victory. Center Bill Godfrey 72 had 15 points and Captain Bruce Wheller 71 had 14. Jerry Hudson 73 had 13 rebounds and 10 points.

Now at the halfway mark of his second season, Brown has 514 points from last year (230.6 mpg.) and 249 in 11 games this year (10.3 ppg. avg. 32.9). This total of 763 points puts him more than halfway to Dave Fassano’s MIT career record of 1457.

The scoring was pretty much even for the first half, but again the Techmen came out strong, as they have many times, to out-score Lowell Tech 18-6 in the beginning of the second half, to sew up the victory.

Tech center Hal Brown goes up for jump shot in action earlier this season. Brown poured in 29 points against Lowell Tech on Saturday to up his season’s average to 22.9.

Skaters sink Lafayette

The varsity hockey team moved its record to 3-1-3 this weekend by topping Lafayette 7-1 on Friday night and dropping to St. Anselm’s in Manchester, N.H. on Saturday night.

On Friday, the pucksters dominated most of the play in a 4-3 score, Lafayette started things off a bit in the first period with a quick goal at 1:40 of the first period. The Techmen came back, though, with left wing Rob Hunter 73 taking a fine centering pass from Andy Jarrell 71 at 10:04 and high scorer Bill Barber 71 putting in a pass from Tom Lydon 73, with one player on each team off. That goal in a four-on-four situation came at the 15 minute mark. With 26 seconds to go in the period though, Lafayette tied the score 2-2 at 2 all.

All of the rest of the action centered around the penalty laden second period. The Techmen converted to two power plays with Jarrell scoring once unassisted at 8:48 and then on a pass from Bill Stenrud 71 at 9:51. Even with the visitors scoring at the 11:11 mark, the skaters held on for a 4-3 win.
