Swimmers sweep GBC's

By Pete Pecoranny

Thea Chi captured the Kloranta Trophy Tuesday evening with a team from Lambda Chi Alpha 3-1 in the championship game of the intramural hockey season. The game was hard-fought and marked by close checking and numerous penalties as tempers began to flare in the waning seconds of the game. TC triumphed because of a series of substitute forwards, including Brandeis' Joe Kruzer, the only substitute player in the game. The final tally showed MIT 4-1 to Tufts' 90, with Brandeis third and Northeastern fourth. Next week - the New Englands!

Late in the period, the puck deep in the LCA zone, McLaughry picked it up and made a break to the near post, giving MIT a commanding lead going into the first intermission. Jim Knauer '72 finished sixth in the 3 meter event.

Pregnancy?

It takes two to tango. Men must share the responsibility for preventing unwanted pregnancy. After all, it's your future (and the future of someone close to you) that's at stake. Here's how you can get condoms - nationally known and imported European brands - by mail from a new non-profit family planning agency. No questions asked. Get it with or without a prescription.

Write for free package of mixed samples (3 each of five brand condoms, including both British imports)

Cage squawk looks ahead to next year

By Randy Young

Although the 1973-74 season, a series of injuries and unfortunate events, the MIT varsity basketball squad finished the year with a respectable 11-10 record, and is looking ahead to next season with hopes for improvement.

The initial setback was the loss of junior Ben Wilson, a 25-point-per-game scorer, for academic reasons. Then, to add to the coach's problem, forward Bill Godfrey broke his foot shortly before the opening game against Tufts.

The team split their first four contests, and traveled to Florida at the beginning of January, where they lost both their games. Coach Barry, however, cited the southern trip as a turning point. Upon their return, the cagers proceeded to win nine of their remaining 15 games, despite Godfrey's four-game bout with the flu. The team's play included victories in four of their last five encounters. Coach Barry and his team saw team spirit as an important factor in the team's success, and added that he was "very pleased with the total season, especially in the final half of the season, made an easy victory.

The finals of the Intramural Swimming Championships will be held at 2:30 pm tomorrow at the Student Pool. The trials were held on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, with those swimmers qualifying tomorrow. Warm-ups for the finals will be scheduled to begin at 2:00 pm.
