It shot put and 35 pound weight Moore ’73, competing in the stage in the pole vault. Brian season, including a 56-6 advan-

By Randy Young

Lay in the field events, where they outsouled their opponents by a 227-78 margin over the midway point of the season.

The engineers’ main strength lay in the field events, where both sophomores, each set a-

and Moore eclipsed the shot put cords were established during duPont equipment

Dave Wilson and Walt Gibbons, breaking John Morefield’s fifducers to meet, as Wilson placed second in the pole.

The engineers’ main strength lay in the field events, where both sophomores, each set ais coming to meeting 7:30 PM Thursday March 18, Stud. Ctr. 439.

The engineers’ main strength lay in the field events, where both sophomores, each set a-in the running events by turning a 5:16.5 performance in the 1000 yard run in the New

Having broken his old mark of 6'4 7/8,” set by

The engineers’ main strength lay in the field events, where both sophomores, each set a-

Development and Education Council recently designated Steve Sydoriak’s old stan-

Wilson’s 15’1” pole vault effort against New Hampshire shatting more and more of the sick. They counsel the troubled and the oppressed.

As a Vincentian, Jim Spencer, a Christian

The Vincentians

St. Vincent de Paul was a Christ-like priest, a warm-hearted man with unbounded love for his fellow man, especially the poor, the sick, the oppressed and the neglected. His life was spent ministering to the sick, the poor, the imprisoned, fed them and even begged for them. Like Christ, he came not to be served but to serve.

Today, the Vincentians, the sons of St. Vincent, carry on his work. As a Vincentian, you can ease the misery of the poor and the suf-

For more information on serving Christ as a Vincentian, write to:

Prepared for limited reproduction as a public service by the Christian Science Monitor. Copyright © 1971 The Christian Science Publishing Company, Boston, Massachusetts. All rights reserved.