Rugby squads split in seasons first games

By Patrick Bailey

The rugby club opened its Spring season with two exciting and satisfying games against the Boston Pilgrims teams Saturday.
The A team bowed 6-8 to the Pilgrims first team, while the B team trounced the Pilgrims' secondists 12-2.

The A team played a very spirited and aggressive game, graduatingly dominating the scrum play from the first half on. Team work and goodwill support by the forwards resulted in a near try by Tech Capt. Frank Caughan but the half ended scoreless with neither side showing a definite advantage.

The Pilgrims scored twice early in the second half, capitalizing on two Tech errors: an intercepted pass and a well-located kick.
The second conversion was missed, and Tech was down 0-8.

Then the Tech back line started to come alive with spectacular runs by Wayne Book and Bob Charles to set up two penalty goals, both converted by Ed Walker. Tech could not penetrate again, and the game ended 12-2.

The next game is on Sunday, 1 p.m., when MIT hosts the Mt.
Royal Montreal team on the west end of Briggs Field.

Although several Tech varsity squads have been in action since the beginning of spring vacation, two sports will get their spring season open tomorrow, with the heavies meeting Columbia on the track.

by MIT, Jim Hains and Bob Masillo led the forwards in demolishing all aggressive efforts.

Christ came not to be served . . . but to serve

Learn how you can serve as a Vincentian

St. Vincent was a Christ-like figure, a warm-hearted man with unbounded love for his fellow men, especially the poor, the sick and suffering. His life was spent ministering to the sick. He reached them, sought them, led them on even across derelict edifices. Like Christ, he came not to be served but serve.

Today the Vincentians, the sons of St. Vincent, carry on his work. As St. Vincent, they can ease the scars of the past and the suffering of the sick. They counsel the troubled and the oppressed.
They open up new schools and hospitals and other institutions. They try to meet the needs of the Church wherever they exist.
