Faculty discipline

Much of the debate on discipline was centered on the role for their role in the office occupation and the possibility of remanding of the Inquiry Committee against further investigation. MIT Information Director Chairman James Fay noted that, while the student body had a tradibeen a threnedion of tranversely of university rights and privileges, it would be extremely difficult to press for full restoration of only for the past 2½ years.

Fay noted that the "practical time was the task of the Report Committee on Equal Opportunity that MIT has significantly increased the number of black students and provided an education there. Over the past 2½ years, while the number of black students has grown dramatically, the increase in black students has brought them up to about 14% of the students from fall 1968 to
