Tennis squad defeats Boston College, Colby

By Stu Traver

The MIT tennis squad easily defeated both Colby and Boston College this past week, but lost to a Wesleyan team 3-4 on the same day.

At Colby, Steve Cross never went less than a 5-2 win over Boston College, winning the top two singles, and four in singles, however, as Bricker and Blair were unable to pull out their third sets.

The most surprising competitive developments, however, occurred within the team challenge system. Steve Cross was finally able to claim William Young at the top of the heap, and Mike Schonberg won a close challenge match to take the last victory spot at number six.

The team's next home match is with Williams tomorrow at 2 pm.

Errors costly as Tech diamond squad loses 3

Dopfel struck out twelve and combined with Dennis Bieker for six hits and four RBIs to lead the win. The other good thing is that Bob Dresser and Joe DeAngelo have come playing closer to their potential.

Both of the above accomplishments were shaded by Wednesday's 9-1 loss to Harvard. Dopfel pitched well for the Techmen, but four in singles, however, as Kathy Jones '71 victory, as Kathy Jones '71

The infield that plays winning path when they meet Wesleyan at home tomorrow at 3 pm.

The men's varsity action has ended in the past week. One 4-2 loss over Boston University.

OVERLAND INDIA

--- GRADS ---

TODAY, FRI., APR. 23

ROCK PARTY

Featuring "Charlie & the Spontaneous Productions"

Can of beer 25¢

B.Y.O. (Mixers free)

8:30 P.M. Robnett Lounge

3rd floor Sloan Building

$1 Donation

There are lots of little ways to make yourself beautiful. Lady Norelco Home Beauty Salon

And the Lady Norelco Home Beauty Salon 305 does all of them.

There with the company Lady Norelco shaver. With a great big shaving head to shave more of you at once. And a really close-shaving foil. (So it's finally easy to keep your legs and waistline in shape.)

It has eleven attachments that fit right onto the shaver and perform whatever you need pampering. It gives you a real beauty salon treatment, from a massage to a manicure.

It's a rich, silky yellow. It's fun to use. And it makes you feel beautiful. And that's what really counts, underneath it all.

How to be beautiful, underneath it all.

Under your makeup, keep your skin glowing with our two facial doses. Then, with our lotion, they pack you up.

Legs should be long and smooth. Shaving should be easy. And fast. Our top super-speed Lady Norelco does the job in distractingly no time!

It's what depends on your feet. Treat them to a proper pedicure with our lady handy attachments.

Shiny hair needs a healthy scalp. Stimulate your scalp with our deep manager. Gentle, relaxing, never.

To look great, you have to feel great. We give you two messages that make you feel great. What a comfort.

Do your nails like a pro with Lady Norelco. You get filling things, buffing things, cutting things, everything.

The M.I.T. Gilbert and Sullivan Society Presents

April 22, 23 & 24th

8 PM KRESGE AUDITORIUM M.I.T.

for tickets call UN4-6900 x4720

Sailors 2nd in Geiger, Obery

With the four-day vacation making possible a wide variety of competitive events, the MIT sailing team was involved in several regattas, including a yawl meet at Coast Guard and the Obery Trophy Regatta for the Greater Boston Championship.

The women's team was the only one to come away with a victory, as Kathy Jones '71 scored three consecutive match race victories in the Boston University President's Trophy Regatta on Monday, to win over the BU entry. In addition to crowing for Kathy, Maria Bazzuto '73, with Maia Grotz '73 as crew, sailed to a third place in a seven school, one division regatta at the University of Rhode Island on Saturday.

The men's varsity action opened up for the weekend on Saturday with a three-race series sailed in 44-foot yachts at the Coast Guard Academy. The eight-man crew of Pete Nesbeda '71 (skipper), Tom Bergan '72, Steve Shantzis '72, John Avallon '72, Larry Bierow '73, Bruce Fabens '73, Frank Keil '73, and Bob Longair '73 sailed to a second place finish out of three schools. Tufts won the second-buoy race, with Harvard placing third.

Also on Saturday, another Tech contingent placed third of twelve schools in the MIT Open. Al Spoff '73 took winning low-point honors in A-division, and the co-skipper team of Bob Hart and John Lacy, both '73, placed third in B, as MIT finished behind teams from Boston State and Harvard.

On Sunday, MIT hosted the 20th Geiger Trophy Regatta, sailed in Tech dinghies, Cape Cod Tech keel sloops, and Finns. In the Finns, a tough Olympic single-handed class, Nesbeda won over Harvard's entry, a former Olympic alternate, while Basow placed first in the sloop action. Harvard mounted a strong showing in the dinghies, however, to help hold the engineering in second place in the five school regatta.

In the Obery Trophy Regatta, sailed for the Greater Boston Championship, the Tech men again place second behind Harvard in a second place field, as Nesbeda took third in A-division, Bergan was second in B, and Spoff placed second in C.