The Age of Nostalgia

A PLEDGE TO SERVICE

The dedication of the New Technology, as had been planned, was the crowning event of the reunion festivities. The simple manner in which the ceremony was carried out is typical of the methods and aims of Technology, both of the past and, we hope, of the future.

The dedication of the magnificently new building which the state and the nation has illuminated with the impres...