WASHINGTON - It's all over.

Second-class postage paid at Boston, Massachusetts. The Troy is published twice a week during the summer, every other week during the winter, and weekly during the April 27 - May 3, and is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a bearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.

The Mayday Tribe openly announced in advance that they would move in on the White House early on Monday morning and Tuesday morning. Although the government's press offices at the West Potomac Park had been under siege for weeks in advance, on Tuesday morning, the demonstrators met in small groups at various points Sunday afternoon to plan the attack against each of the houses of government.

An understanding of the Mayday Tribe's actions on Tuesday May 3 and 4, is necessary to set the stage for the sworn testimony of Sunday evening by subpoenaed Justice Department employees in a hearing, during which some of the questions were asked of the Department employees in a hearing.