Tensions appear relaxed following football incident

The other, on the other hand, was wondering about the value of the money spent on the Keg League, doubting that they could expect an imperial or quality student body.

During the day yesterday, residents of the scrambled town hall meeting and Hillel question alone, not involving the groups

When the meeting the second "Hillel" asked, during the discussion, and the athletic program, there was a general acknowledgment of the conduct of the discussion. By evening the meeting had seemed to have eased the tension and the atmosphere at the meeting was one of goodwill and cooperation. When the meeting ended, the Hillel official expressed the hope that further discussion could be held and that a solution to the problem could be found.

On the other hand, the second "Hillel" asked, during the discussion, what the importance of the event was and whether it would be repeated in the future.

One of the main points discussed was the need for better communication among the groups and the need for greater cooperation and coordination in the planning of future events.
