of Henry Smith Pritchett, president from 1900-1907, was unavailable.) At least three of the first six presidents died tragically, one while conversing with students in his office.

Legislative reality takes shape, October 10, 1910, and nears completion, but for the Building Ten dome, April Fool's day, 1915, seen from Harvard Bridge. Below left, construction of the dome.