The Freshman Advisory Council is looking for undergraduates interested in becoming members of the Council. The Coordinator is in charge of all public relations, development, summer celebration, and September execution for the council, and will spend the summer in the Cambridge area. The job is approximately full-time for Aug. 23 to Sept. 11. Salary is competitive. Participants are encouraged to attend at least one meeting before Dec. 17, at the FAC Room 7-103.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a group organized by the Council, it is meant to be an organization that will help students navigate the transition to college. The college will provide a place where students can ask questions, get advice, and meet other students who are in the same situation. The council will also provide a platform for students to express their concerns and ideas.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.

The Freshman Advisory Council is a student-led organization that is dedicated to providing support and guidance to first-year students. It is made up of students who have been through the college experience and are equipped to provide valuable insights and advice. The council is open to all students, including those who may be feeling overwhelmed or unsure about their college transition.

The Freshman Advisory Council aims to help students feel more connected to the college community, by organizing events and activities that bring students together. It also provides a forum for students to voice their concerns and ideas, and works to address these issues in order to create a more supportive and inclusive environment for all students.