NOTES

- REGISTRATION MATERIAL IS DUE Monday for all second term students.

- Maxwell's equations will be discussed in next week's lecture. There will be no discussion of baronies. Measuring the resistivity of off-campus pick-up trucks may be done at Senior Party next week.

- There will not be a Tech Model Railroad Club open house on Dec. 11 as announced on page 7.

- Open forum to discuss present needs and future of women at MIT on Dec. 14, 1-3 p.m., in Building 37, 37-406. All are invited.

- German diplomatic or consular dude - a doctorate; proof of a mastery of the language; ability to interpret a French document

- MIT bridge intramurals. Call Ken Arnold at 261-8279 for details.

- There is still time to enter a team in the Environmental graphics sale. Call Ken Arnold at 261-8279 for details. "...must be taken, with a grain of a paragraph on what it would entail..."

- Sign-up for Creative Photography. More information can be obtained from Brad Billetdeaux, Randy Young, Alex Makowski, Bruce Schwartz, Robert Forester, John Snyder, Guy Velshoen.

- Robin's Jargon - I

- The Task Force report says that it would be foolish to follow the different regulations. "It is..."

- Further information can be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students Office, Room H-401.

- EERC Colloquium - "Needs and Directions for Educational Systems Research". The Task Force now has the following members: "This proposal can be described as a clever administrative solution to the problem of science and administrative education. The Task Force puts some emphasis on..."

- EERC Colloquium - "Reflections on the organization of college work". The speaker indicated that the organization of college work might be seen as an attempt to give students a better appreciation of the work. (Unfortunatel..."

- FREE Creative Photography (4.9.91), spring term, ends Sat., Dec. 11, 3 p.m., Student Photo Lab, W31-310. The lottery is Dec. 15.

---

The educational division

This is basically another bureaucratic committee, made up mostly of people who work around the Institute, coupled with the..."