THIEF NETS HEADLINE IN DARING ROBBERY

By J. W. Costello

A thief nets a headline in the daring robbery of a well-known Paris jeweler. The suspect, who has been on the run for months, was finally apprehended after a three-day manhunt. The victim, a wealthy businessman, was at his apartment when the robber struck. The heist, valued at over $1 million, is considered one of the largest in recent years. The suspect is scheduled to appear in court next week.
