Black liberation movements in southern Africa are the topics of a lecture series being sponsored by MIT's Political Science Department. The Reverend Gladstone Nhlabati will open the series with a lecture on "The Political of Black Suppression in South Africa and Namibia" on March 14 at 7 pm in the Mezzanine Lounge of the Student Center. The series, according to Barbara Haviland, special assistant to Department Head Eugene Skolnikoff, was initiated by Associate Professor of Political Science William Johnson, who teaches courses in African politics. Haviland emphasized that invitations for the lectures have not only been sent to area universities, but also local community groups. The Department, she said, hopes the series will contribute to the whole Boston area.

Following the beginning of the series, later lectures are: "Commemoration of the Sharpeville Massacre — The Politics of Black Resistance in South Africa and Namibia" (March 21 in Kresge Little Theatre), "The Politics of White Suppression and Black Resistance in Zimbabwe" (April 4), "The Politics of Cultural Oppression and Colonial Rule in the Portuguese" (April 10), "The Revolutionary Struggle for Liberation in Angola, Mozambique, and Guinea-Bissau" (April 26), and "How Can We Aid the Black African Liberation Struggle in Southern Africa?" (May 1).

All lectures with the exception of the one on March 21 will be in the Mezzanine Lounge of the Student Center and will commence at 7 pm.

Lecturer for the series, Reverend Gladstone Nhlabati, has recently returned to East Africa, after a stay of several years in the US as a graduate student at Harvard and Yale. In this country, he has worked with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and the Presbyterian "Crisis in Nation" Program, and founded the Albert Lamab Fund of Atlanta, Georgia.

---

Introducing a new kind of beer. Maximus Super.

Maximus Super is not an ale or a malt liquor. Yet it's very different from ordinary beer. One can and you'll know just how different Maximus Super really is. You'll also know how we arrived at its name.

---

Back by popular demand!

Saves 20% on

Technique 1972

Options on sale — $3.00

This week in Bldg. 10

---

30% to 50% OFF ON ALL STEREO EQUIPMENT, speakers components, compact, and TV's. All sets in factory sealed cartons. 100% guaranteed. All major brands available. Call Mike anytime, 491-7793.

PSYCHEDELIC LIGHTSHOW for parties, room decorations, dances, rock concerts. World's largest psychedelic lighting catalog for rental, sale, lightshows, sales $5 (discounted at 50).

---

JOSs ON SHIPS! MEN. WOMEN.

Perfect summer job or career. No experience especially desired. Full or part time. World-wide travel. Send $2.00 for information. Sand, Box 1239-44, Seattle, Washington 98111.

OVERSEAS JOBS FOR STUDENTS.

Australia, Europe, S. America, Africa, etc. All professions and occupations. $700 to $3,000 monthly. Expenses paid, overtime, sightseeing. For information — Write, Jobs Overseas, Dept. F6, Box 15071, San Diego, CA 92115.

THE DAYS OF FIRE AND BRIMSTONE ARE OVER.

Remember the old-time preachers who urged us to repent in tones that shook the rafters? These days are gone forever.

The Paulist, for instance, speaks the language of today because he is part of today. He is not isolated in a pulpit but part of the world.

Maybe he became a Paulist because he felt uneasy about the state of the world. Or because he wants to change things. But whatever it is he is doing — whether he is a pastor, missionary, a press, radio or television personality, an editor or involved in the University Apostolate, the Paulist is concerned and involved.

Paulists meet the challenge that chance presents.

For more information about the Paulist priesthood, write Rev. Donald C. Campbell, C.S.P., Vocation Director, Room 609, Paulist Fathers, 418 West 59th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.