AMERICAN

If you count on your car for lots of good times, why not give it the best care you can? One way is using Amoco gasolines.
Not only does Lead-Free Amoco cut down on air pollution, but tests prove that Amoco can double the life of your muffler and tail pipe compared to fully loaded gasolines; spark plugs last longer, too.

And in college mileage rallies, and over a thousand mileage tests, Amoco Super-Premium got better mileage than other premiums.
When you've got a lot of money in your car, and you count on it for lots of good times, take good care of it... with Amoco gasolines.
You expect more from American and you get it, too.

If you don’t know what our students are doing, this ad was deleted at the suggestion of Mrs.
Murray Edmon ’72, who felt that it was unfair and not justified.

The cost of the ad was also questioned. It was noted that Harvard was also considering a similar message and that it was too soon to say whether this was the start of a regional and then national campaign. However, several felt that such ads have had no effect on an unresponsive administration. Also, there is no reason to now believe that there will be a change of heart.

The statement was eventually rewritten to concentrate on support for Medical Aid for Indochina, Inc. (MAI).

The Medical Aid Committee
...in collecting funds to purchase medical supplies for the victims of American intervention in Southeast Asia.
Its organizers argue that official US relief programs are not reaching the people who have suffered from the continuing war. Instead, they claim medical and other supplies have been used for military purposes, including pacification and
"pound the people who have..."
