Protesters march on CIS

(Continued from page 1)

...with the arrests were being removed) busying along. They linked arms before the second pair of dogs and tried once more to push the two turn aside, only to be met by showers of "No!"

Eventually the demonstrators realized there was no way to breach the second barricade. They left to march back through the campus to Massachusetts Avenue and the rally in downtown Boston.

Marching across the Harvard Bridge, the crowd of about 200 was met by Boston motorcycle policemen who hovered near as the march turned down Commonwealth Avenue. They met with contingents heading toward the Common, people at the head of the throng

It is America's lowest cost life insurance for all Ordinary Life, Endowment, and Renewable Term policies.

Get the facts and low cost soon for your exact age. It will be worth your time to come in and see us.

984-5270 or 874-2740

LIFE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT
CAMBRIDGEPORT SAVINGS BANK

659 Massachusetts Avenue
Right in Central Square
Within easy walking distance of MIT

Richie Sorensen, though, told The Tech that MIT were summoned by MIT to the Center Thursday evening, they had come to the Sloan parking lot on their own accord. "They don't want to be caught flat-footed again, like at the CFIA," he said.

At about 5 pm, Mike Albert of PCPJ and an advocate of a take-over of the CIS, drove into the Sloan parking lot in his light blue VW van, saw the three bulldozers of police and dogs and quickly drove out of the area.

The police stayed until late evening, but Center administration left by 6 pm, when an unwieldy night seemed assured. Nonetheless, heavy security was implemented at the CIS over the weekend.

George McGovern can win.

And he will win, in Massachusetts and in Miami Beach. But he needs your help to cement his victory against Edmund Muskie and Richard Nixon. MIT Students for McGovern ask you to help us win the Massachusetts Primary — today.

Come to McGovern Headquarters at 678 Mass. Ave. (Central Square) whenever you can today between 8 am and 8 pm, or call DL 0178. Elect a President to end the war now. It's your last chance.