Letters to The Tech

To the MIT Community:

January of this year, we have gathered for an informal lunch to talk over women's issues, and of women in general. The Forum meets in the Bush Room every Monday at noon. It began as a discussion at the White House, and has continued into the self described "women's liberation" movement. The first meeting was held in the Bush Room, and has continued to weekly meetings.

The Forum is set up to discuss specific topics related to women's issues. The meetings are open to all members of the MIT community, regardless of gender, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.

The Forum has served, and hopes to continue to serve again this year, as a place where women can feel welcome and encouraged to discuss their views on any issues they wish to discuss. The Forum began as a way for women to come together and talk about their experiences and ideas. It has since grown to include men as well, and now meets weekly to discuss specific topics related to women's issues.

The Forum is a place for all members of the MIT community to come together and discuss issues related to women's rights and equality. The meetings are open to all, and are held every Monday at noon in the Bush Room. The meetings are moderated by Mrs. Bratt Parker and Johnny Hart.