THE TECH

G.O.P. Launches Youth for Nixon Drive

The program will not endorse any state, or local Republican candidates for office. She added that one of the major problems that has been that of identification, and "people must realize that there is an organization for young voters for President Nixon."

The Young Voters program is apparently having reasonably good luck on the college campuses in Massachusetts, with over twenty colleges already set up, and many more just now getting coordination, including MIT, where the McGovern campaign has had a substantial time advantage, having begun campaign efforts back in March and April for the spring primaries.

Thus far, Young Voters programs have been organized at Boston College, Boston University, Wellesley, MIT, Whistler, University of Massachusetts at Boston, Radcliffe, Harvard, Mt. Holyoke, Amherst, and Smith, though the most active organizations have appeared to be in Western Massachusetts.

Disproportion overall voter appeal, the major problem facing the Young Voters program in Massachusetts is that of lack of sufficient funding. The Massachusetts CRP is also in financial trouble, stemming from a low budget given to the state officer at the beginning of the campaign, when carrying Massachusetts seemed next to impossible to the Republicans. However, the organization will undoubtedly be assisted by campaign visits in the time before the election.
