People, primaries and conventions—

By Norman D. Sandler

"The election was not even close on Tuesday, November 7, 1972, it will go down in history as one of the most unique presidential races in history, particularly from the stand-point of George McGovern, who won from a 3% position in the Harris and Gallup polls back in January to the

The analysis since it's too late for McGovern's policy-stands.

Dr. Leon Eisenberg, Chief of Psychiatry, Massachusetts General Hospital.

Don't waste!

We are up to date on youth fares: Both Domestic and International.

We are- up to date on youth fares: Both Domestic and International.

Responding: Professor Haxi-Lukas Teuber
Dr. Benson Snyder.

Wednesday, November 15
5:15 PM in Room 9-150.

We need a local neslemeister

Christinas creations a la Black Forest, handmade in Hawaii from original, three-dimensional designs to delight the collector. Fortreasured gifts, choose from over 300 items, each hand-painted in gay Christmas colors.

Heritage Travel, inc.
One Broadway, Cambridge, Mass. 02142
Tel. 880-2666

Heritage Travel, inc.

PAGE 6 TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1972 THE TECH

Copyright 1972

Technology and Culture Seminar
Images of Mass Series

ON THE NATURE OF MAN

Accept the Youth: Travel Youth-Fare with Heritage!

Dr. Robert Eisenberg, Chief of Psychiatry, Massachusetts General Hospital.

We are up to date on youth fares: Both Domestic and International.

If you are planning your holiday and vacation travel now, at Heritage's branch travel office in Kendall Square.

Our catalog and sales report $1.00 per copy 500 copies minimum.

WE ALSO WRITE

CUSTOM MADE PAPERS.

Heritage Travel, inc.

One Broadway, Cambridge, Mass. 02142
Tel. 880-2666

CHRISTMAS CREATlONS
A LA BLACK FOREST!

Send for your descriptive, up-to-date, 178 page, mail order catalog of 1,000 quality travel posters. Entirely $1.00 to cover cost and handling.

WE ALSO WRITE

CUSTOM MADE PAPERS.

On to victory

From Massachusetts on, the McGovern camp was geared for a "runaway string of victories in the primaries, leading up to the two crucial tests for the South Dakota, California and New York.

California was a battle between McGovern and Humphrey, with the other candidates having almost negligible influence. The battle between the two senators who had campaigned for the nomination in '68 on completely different platforms was bitter. Humphrey's attack on McGovern did not let up at all through-

He was not going to lose whatever advantage was to be had in being referred to as the underdog, even though it was becoming more and more evident that he would play an important role in Miami Beach.

The student vote was important for the first time in Massa-

The McGovern camp was looking for a clean sweep of the state's 102 delegates in the April 25th primaries. It looked as though the only opposition would be from Muskie, who campaigned only briefly in the state and, being from Maine, would be the only one to stand in the way of McGovern's vic-

The label of front-

runner had sabotaged Muskie's campaign earlier, and McGovern was not going to befoo what advantage was to be had in being referred to as the underdog, even though it was becoming more and more evident that he would play an important role in Miami Beach.

There was no question about it. The student vote would not necessarily be a bloc, but there was little chance of it going to the senator, while McGovern campaigned for the over-age, non-important working class vote, which discovered he could swing in New Hampshire.

In liberal Massachusetts, the McGovern camp was looking for a clean sweep of the state's 102 delegates in the April 25th primaries. It looked as though the only opposition would be from Muskie, who campaigned only briefly in the state and, being from Maine, would be the only one to stand

in the way of McGovern's vic-

The label of front-

runner had sabotaged Muskie's campaign earlier, and McGovern was not going to befoo what advantage was to be had in being referred to as the underdog, even though it was becoming more and more evident that he would play an important role in Miami Beach.

There was no question about it. The student vote would not necessarily be a bloc, but there was little chance of it going to the senator, while McGovern campaigned for the over-age, non-important working class vote, which discovered he could swing in New Hampshire.

Chisholm campaigned briefly in the New York primary. It looked as though the only opponent under her "unconquered and un-