Discomm completes ROTC hearings

(Continued from page 1)

Klayman presented other wit- nesses who placed him at the Student Center at about 4 pm, thus making it impossible, accord- ing to their testimony, for him to have been in the ROTC buil- ding at the time the administra- tors claimed to have seen him there. In addition, Klayman mentioned that as he was leaving the ROTC building he heard the "two-minute warning" being given, and noted that administra- tors had previously testified that this warning was given about ten minutes before the trespass dec- aration was actually read.

Klayman summarized this tes- timony in his closing statement, adding that due to the long lists of names the administrators were trying to remember, they may have been in error in inclu- ding his, saying "the administrato- rs had mental notes of many people who they didn't know that well... I have one (wit- nesses) who is sure, and knows me," and who was concerned only with Klayman.

Clearly many doubts re- mained in the committee's mind due to the long lists of names and as a result the charges against Klayman were dropped.

As the hearing dragged on many of the committee mem- bers became obviously impatient with the lengthy testimony and cross-examinations, but by the end of the hearing Professor Alar Toomer, one of the more clearly important members said to Klay- man "I apologize for my impa- tience... having heard Mr. Venuti. I personally am willing to accept that, and the fact that the three gentlemen (the administra- tors) are mistaken."

Klayman responded by apolo- gizing in turn, saying that he was perhaps "guilty of overkill."

At the conclusion of the eleven hearings all parties expres- sed relief that they were finally over, and several people, includ- ing administrators and commit- tee members, seemed annoyed that they had been dragged out as long as they had, expressing the feeling that the Dean's Office had unnecessarily pursued the issue, rather than simply admonishing the students on its own, without resorting to Disci- pline Committee proceedings.

Relax and Divert

CAMPUS CUE

590 Commonwealth Ave
Opposite B. U. Towers
Pocket Billiards
Pinball Machines
Great for a date!

Auto-torium, Inc.
412 Green St.
Belmont
Central Square
YMCA
Men.-Fri.
Sun to 8pm

MIT STUDENT CENTER

CLASE OF '74

Grass Roots

CANN BE PICKED UP IN BUILDING TEN
Monday, November 20. Last Chance!!!
10 am - 4 pm

MIT ID AND PAYMENT REQUIRED

Digos & Chat

THE TECH FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1972 PAGE 3

SHAREES PROPOSES PLAN FOR UA REORGANIZATION

By Jonathan Wexer

Curis Reeves '73, Undergrad- uate Association President, has proposed that the UA be restruc- tured into what he termed an "organization of officers." Putting forth this new idea at a sparsely attended UA Executive Board Meeting November 14, Reeves explained that a re- organization of officers would be an essential element in this system. The UA would serve as a forum for the airing of ideas as well as being the focal point for the formation of subgroups, which would serve to do the necessary work on problems as they arise.

"I think that the best thing we can do at this point is to have a group that we can count on for form- ing the subgroups," Reeves commented. He gave two rea- sons for why he feels such an arrangement is desirable: first, that not many students have the contacts necessary to have ideas implemented; and sec- ond, that a student group would be helpful as an aid towards making the ideas into something concrete. "There is no focus for cross-examinations, but by the end of the hearing Professor Alar Toomer, one of the more clearly important members said to Klayman "I apologize for my impa- tience... having heard Mr. Venuti. I personally am willing to accept that, and the fact that the three gentlemen (the administra- tors) are mistaken."

Klayman responded by apolo- gizing in turn, saying that he was perhaps "guilty of overkill."

At the conclusion of the eleven hearings all parties expres- sed relief that they were finally over, and several people, includ- ing administrators and commit- tee members, seemed annoyed that they had been dragged out as long as they had, expressing the feeling that the Dean's Office had unnecessarily pursued the issue, rather than simply admonishing the students on its own, without resorting to Disci- pline Committee proceedings.

Relax and Divert

CAMPUS CUE

590 Commonwealth Ave
Opposite B. U. Towers
Pocket Billiards
Pinball Machines
Great for a date!

Auto-torium, Inc.
412 Green St.
Belmont
Central Square
YMCA
Men.-Fri.
Sun to 8pm

MIT STUDENT CENTER

CLASE OF '74

Grass Roots

CANN BE PICKED UP IN BUILDING TEN
Monday, November 20. Last Chance!!!
10 am - 4 pm

MIT ID AND PAYMENT REQUIRED

Digos & Chat

THE TECH FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1972 PAGE 3

SHAREES PROPOSES PLAN FOR UA REORGANIZATION

By Jonathan Wexer

Curis Reeves '73, Undergrad- uate Association President, has proposed that the UA be restruc- tured into what he termed an "organization of officers." Putting forth this new idea at a sparsely attended UA Executive Board Meeting November 14, Reeves explained that a re- organization of officers would be an essential element in this system. The UA would serve as a forum for the airing of ideas as well as being the focal point for the formation of subgroups, which would serve to do the necessary work on problems as they arise.

"I think that the best thing we can do at this point is to have a group that we can count on for form- ing the subgroups," Reeves commented. He gave two rea- sons for why he feels such an arrangement is desirable: first, that not many students have the contacts necessary to have ideas implemented; and sec- ond, that a student group would be helpful as an aid towards making the ideas into something concrete. "There is no focus for cross-examinations, but by the end of the hearing Professor Alar Toomer, one of the more clearly important members said to Klayman "I apologize for my impa- tience... having heard Mr. Venuti. I personally am willing to accept that, and the fact that the three gentlemen (the administra- tors) are mistaken."

Klayman responded by apolo- gizing in turn, saying that he was perhaps "guilty of overkill."

At the conclusion of the eleven hearings all parties expres- sed relief that they were finally over, and several people, includ- ing administrators and commit- tee members, seemed annoyed that they had been dragged out as long as they had, expressing the feeling that the Dean's Office had unnecessarily pursued the issue, rather than simply admonishing the students on its own, without resorting to Disci- pline Committee proceedings.

Relax and Divert

CAMPUS CUE

590 Commonwealth Ave
Opposite B. U. Towers
Pocket Billiards
Pinball Machines
Great for a date!

Auto-torium, Inc.
412 Green St.
Belmont
Central Square
YMCA
Men.-Fri.
Sun to 8pm

MIT STUDENT CENTER

CLASE OF '74

Grass Roots

CANN BE PICKED UP IN BUILDING TEN
Monday, November 20. Last Chance!!!
10 am - 4 pm

MIT ID AND PAYMENT REQUIRED

Digos & Chat

THE TECH FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1972 PAGE 3

SHAREES PROPOSES PLAN FOR UA REORGANIZATION

By Jonathan Wexer

Curis Reeves '73, Undergrad- uate Association President, has proposed that the UA be restruc- tured into what he termed an "organization of officers." Putting forth this new idea at a sparsely attended UA Executive Board Meeting November 14, Reeves explained that a re- organization of officers would be an essential element in this system. The UA would serve as a forum for the airing of ideas as well as being the focal point for the formation of subgroups, which would serve to do the necessary work on problems as they arise.

"I think that the best thing we can do at this point is to have a group that we can count on for form- ing the subgroups," Reeves commented. He gave two rea- sons for why he feels such an arrangement is desirable: first, that not many students have the contacts necessary to have ideas implemented; and sec- ond, that a student group would be helpful as an aid towards making the ideas into something concrete. "There is no focus for cross-examinations, but by the end of the hearing Professor Alar Toomer, one of the more clearly important members said to Klayman "I apologize for my impa- tience... having heard Mr. Venuti. I personally am willing to accept that, and the fact that the three gentlemen (the administra- tors) are mistaken."

Klayman responded by apolo- gizing in turn, saying that he was perhaps "guilty of overkill."

At the conclusion of the eleven hearings all parties expres- sed relief that they were finally over, and several people, includ- ing administrators and commit- tee members, seemed annoyed that they had been dragged out as long as they had, expressing the feeling that the Dean's Office had unnecessarily pursued the issue, rather than simply admonishing the students on its own, without resorting to Disci- pline Committee proceedings.

Relax and Divert

CAMPUS CUE

590 Commonwealth Ave
Opposite B. U. Towers
Pocket Billiards
Pinball Machines
Great for a date!

Auto-torium, Inc.
412 Green St.
Belmont
Central Square
YMCA
Men.-Fri.
Sun to 8pm

MIT STUDENT CENTER

CLASE OF '74

Grass Roots

CANN BE PICKED UP IN BUILDING TEN
Monday, November 20. Last Chance!!!
10 am - 4 pm

MIT ID AND PAYMENT REQUIRED

Digos & Chat

THE TECH FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1972 PAGE 3

SHAREES PROPOSES PLAN FOR UA REORGANIZATION

By Jonathan Wexer

Curis Reeves '73, Undergrad- uate Association President, has proposed that the UA be restruc- tured into what he termed an "organization of officers." Putting forth this new idea at a sparsely attended UA Executive Board Meeting November 14, Reeves explained that a re- organization of officers would be an essential element in this system. The UA would serve as a forum for the airing of ideas as well as being the focal point for the formation of subgroups, which would serve to do the necessary work on problems as they arise.

"I think that the best thing we can do at this point is to have a group that we can count on for form- ing the subgroups," Reeves commented. He gave two rea- sons for why he feels such an arrangement is desirable: first, that not many students have the contacts necessary to have ideas implemented; and sec- ond, that a student group would be helpful as an aid towards making the ideas into something concrete. "There is no focus for cross-examinations, but by the end of the hearing Professor Alar Toomer, one of the more clearly important members said to Klayman "I apologize for my impa- tience... having heard Mr. Venuti. I personally am willing to accept that, and the fact that the three gentlemen (the administra- tors) are mistaken."

Klayman responded by apolo- gizing in turn, saying that he was perhaps "guilty of overkill."

At the conclusion of the eleven hearings all parties expres- sed relief that they were finally over, and several people, includ- including administrators and commit- tee members, seemed annoyed that they had been dragged out as long as they had, expressing the feeling that the Dean's Office had unnecessarily pursued the issue, rather than simply admonishing the students on its own, without resorting to Disci- pline Committee proceedings.