By Storm Kaufman

The MIT has accepted an additional $8.098,300 as its 50th class bequest.

Admissions

To achieve the desired class size, 1683 students were admitted. While Director of Admissions Peter Richardson is not satisfied with the yield -- he'd like to see 75% of those admitted enroll -- others are undesignated. Some very specific designations and large donors prefer to remain anonymous. Minority admissions have first priority.

By Curtis Reeves

By Storm Kaufman

The municipal elections will be 26 days prior to election day. November 6.

The rules for eligibility: 1) You must be a US citizen. 2) You must be 18 or older by November 6, 1973. 3) You must be a legal resident of Cambridge within Ward 2, the precinct depending on exact location of the residence.

The last day to register for the election is October 13. Persons residing in the Second Ward of Cambridge or in the Third Ward of Cambridge (Wards 1, 2, and 4) may register now to vote for the Third Ward or the Second Ward in a special state election of September 25. The Mit campus line within Ward 2, the precinct depending on exact location of the residence.

The address is 362 Green St. List. ~

There are four buildings at MIT that bear the names of "fathers of the class of 1923. They will probably be more, for the MIT administration is seeking support, in their approximately 60,000 alumni.

A) Your name listed in a 1972-1973 student directory.
B) A statement in your college housing office on their stationary, authenticated with the college seal, to the effect that you live at the address specified.
C) Your name in the annual directory.
D) Your name in the 1973 (Please turn to page 6)