Chicago VI (Colombia)

I’ve noticed that one thing this group has never had to worry about is that after their last two albums time lengths for their hits. It’s evidently an unnecessary concern for a group of such popularity and success as Chicago. After all, they’re just a few guys from Columbus, Ohio and they seem determined to stay in that position by releasing albums with ballads, some songs simpler, others more complex. The group didn’t start out that way, and this is why their success hasn’t been so disappointing to me — I mean they’re really strong.

In the summer of 1969, one of our ears taped the cuts of the sides that no one else had heard. We cut the sides of the song “Loneliness is Just a Word” and we were very impressed, especially with the singer’s voice. We thought it was a very good album and we wanted to hear more of the group. We heard the song “The First Cut Is the Deepest” and we were convinced that this was the kind of band we were looking for.

Their first single, “Just a Sugar Plum Girl,” was released on the Columbias label in 1968. It was a hit and was followed by “I Don’t Want to Go Home.” Both of these songs were written by the group’s lead vocalist, Terry St. John. Their second single, “My Love,” was released in 1969 and it was also a hit.

Their third single, “The Last Goodbye,” was released in 1970 and it was another hit. Their fourth single, “Loneliness is Just a Word,” was released in 1971 and it was also a hit. Their fifth single, “This Is the Time,” was released in 1972 and it was another hit. Their sixth single, “Sugar Plum Girl,” was released in 1973 and it was also a hit.

The group has had a lot of success in the past few years, and they have been able to sell a lot of records. They have been able to sell a lot of records in the United States, but they have also been able to sell a lot of records in other countries.
