At the President’s House, Simonides appeared and was asked to speak. Stating the “Alumni are not rich enough . . . parents are too poor. . . .” he slipped off the hook. A bottle of water from the Charles River was then poured on the pavement in a symbolic gesture.

The crowd, which had been reduced to approximately 100, then broke with traffic by returning to the Great Sail and struggled unsuccessfully to prevent a sit-down in the middle of the crossing, but kept traffic moving around it.

As the crowd attempted to storm the Green Building, the riot continued. According to several observers, the riot was larger than average, and more successful in accomplishing its objectives. Traffic was completely stopped on Mass Ave several times, at least two of which were during green lights. Campus Patrolmen struggled unsuccessfully to prevent a sit-down in the middle of the crossing, but kept traffic moving around it.

The Sodew and Anderson Committee is always looking for new members. If you have any ideas that you would like to present, or if you would like to help work on the ones we already have, or if you are just generally interested in the Committee—please stop by our office (Room 347 of the Student Center), leave a message at x3-3916 or x3-3913, or come to one of our meetings (usually 7:30 every Sunday).
