Police Blotter

4/2/74

Patrol reports the recovery of a stolen motor vehicle from the rear of Building 20. Vehicle had been used in a bank holdup and was involved in a hit and run accident. Cambridge Police Department and FBI investigating.

4/2/74

Several reports of motor vehicles broken into at the Westgate Area Parking Lots. In all cases, windows forced and glove compartments ransacked.

Two bands have been signed for backup to Astra-smith in a concert to be held April 20 in Rockwell Cage, according to the Undergraduate Association.

The bands, Goodfoot and Fever, are cornering a $500 for playing the warm-up sets at the concert, which is being sponsored by the UA, the Student Center Committee, and the Finance Board. Total cost of the concert is estimated at $10,600.

The UA has also announced the rules for an "incentive contest" to ensure that all the 3500 tickets for the concert are sold. All students who try, and rules, as well as test and rules, as well as try, are eligible to enter the contest and try for a prize of a $499 stereo system donated by Techno-Hi-Fi. The里的 group which has the greatest number of tickets sold before the concert will be given 5 kegs of beer and a local band for a party.

Details on the concert contest and rules, as well as tickets themselves, can be picked up in the UA office, W20-403.

Report of 6 bicycles stolen from the lobby of the Student Center, both bicycles were chained and locked.

The Patrol reports that last week a transient female visitor occupying a room in the Ashdown House gave birth to a 5 pound, baby girl. The Campus Patrol administered the necessary aid and transported the mother and baby to a local hospital for further care. A sub-sequent visit to the hospital revealed the mother and baby doing fine. Social service assisting subject.

4/9/74

Patrol reports the recovery of a motor vehicle on Vassar Street. The patrol would like to call to the attention of the MIT Community the fact that Mobile Automobile Body Mechanics are once again soliciting business in the area. Their mode of operation is to cruise the parking lots and then make contact with owners of cars with obvious body damage. Once contacted and an agreement has been made for the work in the past that has proved inferior and prices charged have been ex-horrible for the work accomplished with no recourse whatsoever.

The Campus Patrol announces that the sheltered bicycle compounds is now open. The hours are Monday through Friday, 7:45am to 5:45pm. The compound is located behind the Bush Building (Building 13). A check-out, check-in system is in effect.
