I. Rush Week.

Out disagreements over plans for IFC through the summer to iron between all the houses and the ground rules to abide by to plan to hold continued meetings, we need to come up with some.

We need a reaffirmation of the willingness to cooperate. I think or not we should have fines," argued Levine. "No one is out to shaft the fraternities."

"Dorms aren't in the business of piling up a lot of people," added McCormick Housemaster Steve Senturia. "They just have the marine world off the Cape."
