Most frost get first choice dorms

By Storm Kaufman

After the third round of freshman housing assignments, announced yesterday afternoon, only 41 freshmen remain in their temporary quarters.

In order to find beds for the about 630 students so far assigned, the Dean for Student Affairs Office has found it necessary to overwork freshmen into the dormitory system.

Overcrowding has been somewhat relieved by a successful Fraternity rush this year. Of 3577 Thursday, 374 students (about 17 of them are transfers) who relieved by a successful signed, the Dean for Student temporary quarters.

The blackboard in the R/O Clearinghouse shows the totals of a successful rush week, while clearing house Coordinator Jim Miller '76 tracks down a freshman.

Students told: don't bring cars

By Storm Kaufman

Cambridge will soon begin implementing a ban on all on-street parking from 7am to 10am.

The only exceptions granted will be for Cambridge residents parking cars registered in Massachusetts within one half mile of their homes.

The ban will be introduced to one-third of Cambridge's 280 miles of curbs on Oct 1; all these streets will be in residential areas. The second third of the city will be affected on Jan 1, and all streets will be under the restrictions as of March 1, 1975.
