Beavers drop three

By Jim Thompson

The MIT baseball team extended its losing streak to four games with losses to Brandeis, Bentley, and St. Anselm's last week. Bentley shutout the Beavers, 6-0, St. Anselm's took a 5-0 shutout, and the Beavers split a doubleheader with Brandeis, losing one game, 13-5, and winning the other, 4-0.

On Monday, the Beavers lost a squeaker to Brandeis, 7-6. Brandeis took a 2-0 lead and held it until the sixth inning when the Beavers, on a single by Steve Bedian '78, an error, two walks, and a two-run single by Herb Kummer '75, scored three runs to take a 6-0 lead. The Beavers surprised the Bentley defense. It was the second time this season the Beavers and Bentley have played each other. In the first game, Bentley won, 5-0.

Steve Kummer '75 of the Beavers was the most consistent hitter, with two hits in each game. Herb Kummer was also consistent, with two hits in each game. Kummer and Kummer combined for 22 base hits, four of them home runs and eight of them for extra bases. Dave Wargo '75 had two hits and scored a run and Mike Dziekan '76 also scored a run with a single in MIT dropped its record to 2-2-2.

The Beavers have definitely improved their pitching over the past couple of games. The Beavers' defense was solid last week, especially against St. Anselm's. St. Anselm's combined-for 22 base hits, four of them home runs and eight of them for extra bases. Dave Wargo '75 had two hits and scored a run and Mike Dziekan '76 also scored a run with a single in MIT dropped its record to 2-2-2.

Steve Kummer '75 of the Beavers was the most consistent hitter, with two hits in each game. Herb Kummer was also consistent, with two hits in each game. Kummer and Kummer combined for 22 base hits, four of them home runs and eight of them for extra bases. Dave Wargo '75 had two hits and scored a run and Mike Dziekan '76 also scored a run with a single in MIT dropped its record to 2-2-2.

Steve Kummer '75 of the Beavers was the most consistent hitter, with two hits in each game. Herb Kummer was also consistent, with two hits in each game. Kummer and Kummer combined for 22 base hits, four of them home runs and eight of them for extra bases. Dave Wargo '75 had two hits and scored a run and Mike Dziekan '76 also scored a run with a single in MIT dropped its record to 2-2-2.